

- May these gifts given and received go forth as a reflection of our acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth.
- In gratitude for the work of our hands, our hearts, and our lives we send these gifts forth as a proclamation of the inherent worth and dignity of all beings.
- In union with one another we give these gifts faithfully and joyfully to carry forward our commitment for a free and responsible search for truth and meaning.
- We receive these gifts for the ministry of this fellowship and its belief in justice, equity and compassion in all human relations.
- We receive this collective offering of love so that we may continue the goal of a world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all.
- We express our gratitude for all we have received and celebrate our conscience awareness for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are all a part.
- Gifts given in love and hope continue a cycle of love and hope.
- For the gifts which we have received—and the gifts which we, ourselves, are—may we be truly grateful. May we be committed to using these gifts to make a difference in the world: to increase love and justice; to decrease hatred and oppression; to expand beloved community; to share, and to keep sharing, as long as ever we can. Amen.
- We are nourished by the fruits of trees we did not plant. In gratitude, let us in turn use these gifts to plant and water trees of community to nourish the spirits of one another and the larger world we are called to serve.
